Dear President,

For months, our Union feels an obvious lack of information from the FEMS you are leading, concerning the evolution of major European issues: organization of working time (EWTD 2003/88), recognition of professional qualifications (ED 2005/36), task shifting, medical demography and doctors' working conditions, inter alia.

We also think that the FEMS is not as present on the European platform for lobbying the EU Institutions (Council, Parliament and Commission) and taking part in the meetings organized by the other European Medical Organisations.

We kindly ask you to tell us what initiatives you and the Board members plan to take quickly to revitalize the work of FEMS and give back to our Inter-Union the place of European reference organization in information and in defending the interests of the salaried physicians of our continent.

Lastly, we want you to bring this point, with this letter, to the agenda of the next General Assembly of FEMS in Bucharest (Romania) in October.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Yves REBUFAT
