1. In the short period since the former FEMS General Assembly in our country, there were ample social movements directed against the government. In the big cities of the country, rallies, protests, clashes with the police forces took place.

2. After applying the changes to the Fiscal Code and the Wage Law, the government is preparing a new pension law, which is now under public debate, and which raises a major concern among healthcare workers.

3. In June our federation had a new meeting with the Minister of Health, where the problems of the health system were discussed.

A new meeting with the Minister is scheduled for November
